LATIN

As the month of November rolls around thoughts along the avenue turn towards the renewal of perhaps the oldest and finest rivalry in schoolboy athletics. The friendly rivalry that exists between these two great secondary schools is a source of pride to every member of each school's community. The spirit, enthusiasm and determination of the students attending these two fine educational institutions is as great now as it was when this series first began. I commend the dedication of the coaches and players of both schools. Let us continue the tradition of school excellence and good sportsmanship which has existed through the long and brilliant history of each school.

"A SOUND MIND IN A HEALTHY BODY"
Caleb Mills

This quotation symbolizes the spirit of the Annual English-Latin football game. Both institutions through their athletic and educational programs seek to develop sound minds in healthy bodies. This titanic struggle illustrates that a combination of talents must be obtained to master any situation and reminds us all of our need for physical activities and mental stimulation. Tradition dictates that there must be a loser in this game but in fact all who participate win. I wish both teams the best and hope they carry well the memory of this game and continue their search for excellence.

COACH COSTELLO'S STATEMENT

It is always a privilege and a distinct pleasure for me to coach the fine student athletes at the Boston Latin School.

This year's team has demonstrated great determination to excell and has shown steady improvement as the season progressed.

The Latin-English Classic is an outstanding experience for all those who participate in the contest. The tradition, excitement and competition is unparalleled in high school competition.

I would like to thank Brian O'Sullivan, the Captain of Wolfpack '79, for a fine job of leadership. I am also very grateful to my coaching staff of Steve Cohen, Paul Mani, Paul Izzo and Larry Whitfield for a job well done.

Paul J. Costello
Head Coach

COACH PEARSON'S STATEMENT

I'd like to congratulate the team and coaching staff for their contribution to this year's winning effort, the best in over a decade.

Our goal two years ago was to bring English High football back to prominence and rekindle interest in the program.

We thank all those for their support towards this goal.

Head Coach

B.L.S. FIGHT SONG

On the field of many colors
Latin's banners fly
Cheer on, Cheer like volley thunder
Echos to the sky.
See the Latin Team advancing.

Gaining more and more
So we'll fight, fight, fight
With all our might
Dear old Latin evermore.
